VOLUME XXV

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY JULY 25, 1922.

NUMBER 40

Mrs. Loretta A. Richards Died Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Loretta A. Richards, wife of W. A. Richards, died Saturday afternoon of diabetes at the age of 65 years, 2 months and 15 days. Mrs. Richards (nee Coffey,) was born at Columbia, Ky., on April 23, 1857, and was educated in the public schools and an academy in that vicinity.

On August 8, 1875, she was married to W. A. Richards who with six children and twelve grandchildren survive her. The children are: George Richards and Mrs. R. Wood, of Denton, Arthur, Buford and Arvin Richards, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. J. T. Hawes, of New Mexico. Two children are dead. A. Albert Richards, who died in 1904 at the age of 23 years, and Charles Owen Richards, an infant who died in 1893.

The family moved from Kentucky to Dallas county in 1891 and in 1896 moved to Denton county. Early in life Mrs. Richards united with the Baptist church and lived a consistent Christian.

Funeral services were to be held Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence, 1703 West Maple Street, with Rev. Will C. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in charge. Burial will follow in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.—The Record & Chronicle, Denton, Texas.

To Dog Owners.

You are not paying any attention to the warning in regard to your dogs. Now positively this is your last warning. You either must tie, confine or muzzle your dog, or I will have them killed.

C. G. Jeffries,

Judge of Adair County Court.

A Great Day.

On Sunday, the 16th, there assembled at Mt. Pleasant Methodist church, near Esto, in Russell county, a large crowd, the occasion being to honor one of the county's native sons, Rev. R. E. Stevenson, A. B. B. D., who honored his "old home church" with a pleasant visit.

Bro. Stevenson delivered a great sermon in the forenoon and in the afternoon a great lecture. As this is the church where Bro. Emery spent his boyhood and to again be permitted the pleasure of meeting old schoolmates, neighbors and friends doubtless brought fresh to memory the happy scenes of long ago.

Rev. Stevenson is Vice President and Principal of the Theological Department of Lydia Patterson Institute, El Paso, Texas, an institution that trains Mexican young men for preachers and missionaries to their own country.

Bro. Stevenson has a wife, who is a cultured and refined lady and three interesting children. A. G.

The Columbia Outlaws stacked their fire arms last Thursday and met the Jamestown civilians with open arms and knee trousers. They announced that they would be law-abiding, but reserved the right to hit every ball that was pitched in the direction of the batter, and to knock it to "Kingdom come." The contest was called at 3 p. m., and it was spirited from the beginning to the ending. The score card showed at the conclusion that the Outlaws had registered 11 and Jamestown 6. The game was witnessed by quite a number of lovers of the sport.

The premium list for the Columbia Fair is published in the News to-day. The Association hangs out very inviting premiums. Prospects are flattering for one of the best meets Columbia has ever had. People of Columbia who expect to keep open houses should prepare to do an unusually amount of feeding and sleeping.

The largest catalogue ever printed and sent out from this office is the one for the Columbia Fair. They are now in the hands of the stockmen.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

On Saturday, August 5th, a primary election will be held in this county and the Democrats will vote to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge in the Third District. There are but two candidates, Hobson L. James, of Elizabethtown, Kentucky, and D. A. McCandless, of Munfordville, Ky.

Mr. James is a Democrat, who has a clean record, has never held office and has not before this been a candidate. He has the endorsement of all the lawyers and Democratic officials of his county and the endorsement and support of Chief Justice Rollin Hurt, of the Court of Appeals. He is well qualified for the office and can win in November.

Judge McCandless is now a Circuit Judge in a Democratic district, having been elected last November for a term of six years from January 1st, 1922. In 1897 he was elected County Judge of Hart county, but before his term of office expired, resigned to make a contract with the Fiscal Court over which he had presided, to represent his county in a lawsuit from which employment he expected to realize more benefit than from completing his term as County Judge. In 1906, on the death of his cousin, he was appointed Commonwealth's Attorney and served as such five years. In 1915 he was nominated by a majority of forty-two votes for Circuit Judge of his district and elected for a term of six years. He appointed his daughter as his Court Stenographer and his brother-in-law as a Master Commissioner. Last year he sought re-election and filed with the Secretary of State a declaration provided for by Sub Section 6 of Section 1550, Kentucky Statutes, in which he promised under oath that if elected as Circuit Judge he would qualify for the office. Before he was elected and after it was too late for him to have opposition for Circuit Judge, he announced as a candidate for Appellate Judge and if he now secures this nomination and is elected in November, he must resign as Circuit Judge and Governor Morrow will appoint his successor. The judge so appointed would appoint a Master Commissioner, Receiver and Trustee of the Jury Fund in each of the six counties in the district and a Court Stenographer for the district. These officers so appointed would of course be Republicans in a Democratic district. Therefore, each Democrat who votes for McCandless in the primary votes to put twenty Republicans into office in a Democratic district. Most Democrats think we have too many Republicans in office now and all Democrats who are true to their party should and will vote for Mr. James for this nomination.

Several Republicans are working for McCandless because they believe he can be defeated by them in November, if nominated, and they know that should he be elected in November, they will gain a Republican Circuit Judge and the officers and influence which goes with the office to be used in the interest of the Republicans in the campaign of 1923 when state officers are to be elected. The Group Gathering, at Keith's Chapel, the fifth Sunday, has been postponed on account of measles. Alvin Rosson.

Eld. W. G. Montgomery will lecture at Shiloh Church, Monday night the 31st of July. He will also lecture at the Christian church, this place on Tuesday night following. Every body invited.

The finest peaches we have seen this season were grown by Mrs. Lanie Staples, at her home. They are large, smooth, and very delicious. For the selection she left at this office we return our sincere thanks, assuring her that the remembrance was gratefully appreciated.

A list of appointments for meetings of those interested in Tobacco pooling is published in to day's News. Read them and attend the meetings.

Big Game.

The following will be the line up for next Friday's contest:

Old Timers:

Jones, L. F.; E. Barger, C. F.; Young, R. F.; P. P. Dunbar, F. B.; Epperson, S. B.; Sanders, S. S.; O. Barger, T. B.; Pink Dunbar, C.; Dr. Hindman, P.

Outlaws.

Forest Lowe, F. B.; Foster Pickett, S. B.; Shreve Davis, S. S.; Leon Lewis, L. F.; Sam Stevenson, C. F.; Allan Mercer, R. F.; Theron Taylor, P.; Alvin Lewis, C.; Chelsie Barger, Owen Davis, Utility.

Admission, men 15c, Ladies, Free. Friday, July 28, 3:30.

Notice, Truck Men.

Bids will be received until the 1st day of August for hauling Portland Cement and Yellow Pine Lumber from Campbellsville, Ky., to the Lindsey-Wilson Hill. There will be approximately 2,800 bags of Cement and 40 or 50 thousand feet of lumber, and various other things for this job. Mail your bid to J. C. Miller, Campbellsville, Ky.

J. C. Miller.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church started Sunday and is being largely attended. Dr. Charles W. Welch, of the Fourth Avenue Church, Louisville, is doing the preaching. He is a great Bible student and a captivating speaker, commanding the attention of all who hear him. He is not only a speaker, but a teacher of the Word, and no one can hear him without being entertained. All the Churches in Columbia are cordially invited to attend the services. If Christian people are in favor of the betterment of the community, they will work together for an outpouring of the spirit of God.

Vote for Hobson L. James.

Last year Judge McCandless wanted a Circuit Judgeship. He was nominated and elected for a term of six years. Now he is not satisfied, and is asking the Democrats to give him an Appellate Judgeship. He would then resign and permit Gov. Morrow to appoint a Republican to succeed him as Circuit Judge. Do you favor this? If not, you should support H. L. James for Appellate Judge.

The Columbia base ball club did fine work at Greensburg last Friday. The team was in fine shape and went into the game with the determination of winning. When the contest opened both sides felt confident and the home fans were dead sure that the honors would go to Greensburg. In this they were mistaken, as the score card at the close showed Columbia 7, Greensburg, 4. "Burley" Young and his team, in high glee, left for home, while the Greensburg team contented itself "by chewing the rag."

Rev. J. P. Scruggs.

[FRANKLIN FAVORITE.]

Rev. J. P. Scruggs, pastor of the Franklin Baptist Church, is one of the ablest divines of the Baptist faith in Kentucky, and with this combines an industry which makes him a pastor of splendid worth.

Rev. Scruggs succeeded Rev. B. H. Lovelace as pastor, and it is questionable if a higher compliment could be paid him than to say that he has measured up to the exacting requirements of his flock as set by his beloved predecessor, for Rev. Lovelace was and is a man among men, devout, upright and fearless in the discharge of all duties, both public and private.

Without making himself obnoxious to young men, who on account of youth, are not disposed at all times to follow the path set down in Holy Writ as "straight and narrow," Rev. Scruggs has, by his genial bearing and friendly courtesy, won the confidence and respect of all, and is a force for good in this section which could scarcely be estimated.

Another attribute which greatly aids him in the work of the Master is his broad and liberal conception of life. He is directly interested in the material advancement of the county and is always ready to accept place on any program where the people are called together to discuss plans where by progress can be made.

Some years ago Rev. Scruggs received a call from the church at Columbia, the county-seat of Adair, which, as a subsequent events went to show, proved to be the happiest event in the whole of his ministerial life, for while ministering to the flock he met and later married the daughter of the lamented Judge James Garnett, an elegant gentleman and in his day one of the State's ablest jurists. It was long the custom in this country to dismiss the subject after giving the family name to which the wife belonged before her marriage, but the Constitution now regards women as on exact equality with men, and The Favorite is therefore permitted without violence to ethics to continue the narrative. Much of the good Rev. Scruggs is enabled to do, both as citizen and minister, is due to the encouragement received from and womanly graces imparted by his devoted and consecrated companion, who is one of the State's most highly cultured and most active church workers.

A number of friends of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Russell were guests at a picnic at their home, on Greensburg Street, last Friday evening. A delicious picnic supper had been prepared by the ladies. After the supper was served music and games were enjoyed by all.

A ladies' parasol was left at the Bank of Columbia several weeks ago. The owner can have it by describing the same.

Bank of Columbia.

Lucien Angely, charged with selling moonshine liquor, was tried before Commissioner T. C. Davidson, last Thursday. He was held over and his bond fixed at $200. He bonded Friday and upon his release Sheriff J. M. Howell, of Green county, who was here to re-arrest him, took him in charge and left for Greensburg, there being charges against him in the Green circuit court. The Sheriff was accompanied by Mr. Warren White, Town Marshal of Greensburg.

Let your slogan be "we must beat Burkesville."

The window frames for the third story of the Jeffries building are being made. All the wood work for the addition will be gotten ready in order to put up the additional story as soon as the brick is done.

A Quiet Place.

Thirty years ago the little town of Glenville was known as being unusually lawless, and the town was called "Hard Scratch," but since that time quite a change has come over the community, and to day it is the most law-abiding settlement in Adair county. We learn from Mr. C. A. Walker that thirty years ago, at each circuit court, the whole town was summoned to Columbia as witnesses, on various offenses. The last, held in this month, July, there was not a witness from the town of Glenville nor a man drawn for jury service. "This is an evidence," said Mr. Walker, that our people are law-abiding. "In fact, we have one of the largest Sunday-schools in the county, and everybody attends church." The course that Glenville has followed in the last thirty years is very commendable.

Notice.

At Columbia, Ky., on July 31, 1922, I will receive bids for hauling brick from kiln to the Building site of the Bank of Columbia. The brick will be handed from the kiln to the hauler without expense to hauler. At least 10,000 brick must be hauled per day, July 25, 1922.

J. C. Miller, Contractor.

Changed Hands.

Mr. G. W. Dillon has purchased the stock of drugs, notions, etc., from Russell & Taylor and will take possession the first of August. Mr. Dillon is a registered Pharmacist, and is one of Adair county's best citizens. His son, Mr. Rich. Dillon, is also a registered pharmacist, and either he or his father will remove from Breeding to Columbia. Either will be a valuable acquisition to our community. Russell and Taylor have been doing a splendid business, and they will be greatly missed from the business affairs of this place.

The home Boys get their Baptism of Fire Thursday. Support them with your presence.

Work on the gymnasium at the Lindsey-Wilson, is moving along rapidly, and it is hoped to have it completed early in the fall. It is to be brick and it will be large enough for all purposes.

Notice.

July 22nd, 1922

To each and every election officer, who may be holding election seals and keys to locks of the Ballot Boxes, you are hereby notified to return them to the County Court Clerk's office this week without fail.

Died at Springfield.

Mrs. Bettie Waggener, who was the wife of Mr. Nathan Waggener, died at Springfield last Friday afternoon. She was a very excellent lady, a native of Adair county, the most of her life having been spent near Milltown. She was about 60 years old and was a sister of Mrs. W. S. Chapman, this place, who attended the funeral. Her maiden name was Thomas.

Strayed from my premises, a large, Sandy, Polan China sow and young pigs. Sow will weigh about 500 pounds. Rings in her ears. Will pay a reward.

Attention, Parents.

Children are not allowed to attend school in any district, outside of the one in which they live, without the permission of the trustees of their home school and also the permission of the trustees of the school they want to enter. The teachers will also have to be consulted.

Tobacco Meetings

Will be held at the following places: Milltown, Wednesday, July 26, at 10 a. m. Pickett, Wednesday, July 26, at 1 p. m. Keltner, Wednesday, July 26, at 4 p. m. Gradyville, Thursday, July 27, 9:30 a. m. Weed, July 27, 1 p. m. Breeding, July 27, 8 p. m. Tolia, Friday, July 28, 9:30 a. m. Sparksville, July 28, 1 p. m. Cane Valley, Saturday, July 29, at 2 p. m.

These meetings will be devoted to a thorough discussion of the plans of operation and what it means to the growers of tobacco to become members of the Marketing Association. You will also learn at these meetings what the manufacturers paid the Association for each grade of tobacco this year. Come and bring your neighbors.

An Attractive Home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Miller have gone to a considerable expense in making improvements on their home, located on Burkesville street. Besides extending their concrete blocked porch around the West side of their residence, they have just had completed a lovely sun parlor on the north side, making their residence the most attractive in Columbia, and it is as conveniently constructed as it is attractive. Mr. H. T. Walker put the finishing touches on this handsome residence.

See the big game Thursday, July 27. Batteries: Wilson and Lewis and Anderson for Burkesville.

Marriage Licenses.

County Clerk S. C. Neat has issued the following marriage licenses recently:

John Harlan Rooks to Miss Emma L. Holmes.

Mont Burton to Miss Ethel Burton.

Nathan P. Hays to Miss Annie C. Antle.

A daughter four years old of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Powell, who live on Dr. S. P. Miller's farm, died last Saturday.

The ballots for the primary election are now being printed at this office, and will be delivered in due time.

Let every Democrat, women as well as men, vote in the primary.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it."

Mr. Lewis Coffey, of Columbia, opened the public school here Monday of last week with a full attendance. Mr. Coffey is a fine young man, and there is no doubt but he will give satisfaction as a teacher.

Lady Astor, the first woman to gain a seat in the English Parliament and who has been paying a visit to her native country, America, believes that the only way to improve conditions is to instill in the children a desire for better lives. And she is correct, for the little children of today will be the lawmakers or the lawbreakers tomorrow. On the mothers and fathers rests the burden of the future welfare of the country and God grant that they may live up to their responsibility.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce Judge D. A. McCandless a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, Third District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce that H. L. James, of Elizabethtown, Hardin county, is a Democratic candidate for Appellate Judge in this the Third District, subject to the August primary.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce that Ralph Gilbertt, of Shelby county, our present Congressman from the Eighth district, is a candidate for re-election, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

GARNETT FOR GOVERNOR.

The Rolling Fork Echo, of July 13th has the following to say of Mr. Garnett:

Elsewhere in this issue are published extracts from a speech made by ex-Attorney General James Garnett, one of Kentucky's biggest men. The Echo stated 12 or 15 years ago that he was gubernatorial timber of a very superior quality and has never changed his mind. While the Democrats are now looking for a truly representative man they can do no better than to select Jim Garnett who could be elected. He would not only honor the state but make it through his wise administration of affairs so that all others would honor it.

Let every Democrat, male and female vote in the primary election. It is important that they all go to the polls.

There is no reason why we should not have good roads in Kentucky. The Tax on automobiles last year amounted to $2,000,000, all going to the road fund, and the tax on gasoline, which is also a very large sum, goes to the same fund.

The Democrats throughout the country rejoiced when the announcement was made that Senator Gilbert Hitchcock was renominated for another term of six years in Nebraska, a few days ago. Mr. Hitchcock did not agree with President Wilson on all propositions, but he is a Democrat just the same, and would probably be a better Democrat had he agreed with Mr. Wilson on all propositions, especially in national affairs.

It looks very much like the coal miners will have to throw up the sponge. President Harding is seriously contemplating issuing a call for 200,000 patriotic men to volunteer to work in some of the large coal mines in order to prevent a disastrous fuel famine. The time for the President to act has not yet come, but if the miners do not tumble and go to work, drastic steps will be taken. If the miners are displaced and citizens go in to fill their places, the Government will place a sufficient armed force over them to protect them from molestation.

In the passing of Hon. Claud B. Terrell, whose death occurred at the Seelbach Hotel last Tuesday afternoon, the Democratic party of Kentucky lost one of its most valuable members. He was a victim of heart trouble and had been an invalid for about one year. He was twice elected Speaker of the Kentucky House of representatives. His remains were conveyed to his old home, Bedford, Ky., for interment. By profession Mr. Terrell was a lawyer and frequently was selected by the Governor to act as special Judge in districts where the elected Judge could not attend.

It has not been the custom of this paper since it was established, twenty-five years ago to advocate the claims of one Democrat over another in a primary election. You can not tell who who will be nominated, and we have endeavored to be in a position to cheerfully support the winner in the general election. It is not a good idea to give expressions that the paper would have to retract if the candidate the publication is for should lose the nomination. We have a choice in the race for Appellate Judge and will express that choice on the day of the primary election. We believe we will vote for the winner. That is, every thing points in that direction at this time, Judging from expressions that come to us from all over the district. Judge James is a loyal friend to Judge Rollin Hurt and Judge Hurt lives in Columbia, the most popular gentleman in Adair county.

Gradyville.

Dock Walker and Ray Flowers attended the show here Wednesday.

Beatrice Sparks spent a few days in Louisville the first of the week.

Quite a number of our people attended the singing at Price's Chapel last Sunday.

Uncle Charlie Yates was on the sick list a few days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hindman, of the Milltown community, and Milton Grissom, of Columbia, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilmore one day last week.

Mr. C. C. Hindman, of Milltown section, delivered to Dudley Bros., several loads of corn last week, at $5.00 per bbl.

Our old friend, Filmore Sparks, of Red Lick, attended the show here last Wednesday, and while in the community bought several veals for future delivery at the market price.

Messrs. Pendleton & Bridgewater, the well-known live stock dealers, of Greensburg, passed through here last week, with 475 lambs that they had bought in Cumberland county at 4 and 8 cents per lb. Also passed through this week with 80 head of cattle that they had bought in the same county at 5 and 6 cents per lb. Our neighboring county seems to be very famous for good stock of all kind.

Our school opened last Monday with fairly good attendance. Our teachers are Miss Huddleston, of Glensfork, and Miss Shearer, of Columbia. The indications are that we will have a good school.

W. L. Grady, the owner of one of the finest horses in Kentucky, came near losing him. For several days, it was thought by Mr. Grady and others that the recovery was exceedingly doubtful, but we are glad to report that he is out of all danger at this time. His trouble was brought on by getting too hot, while being trained for the fairs.

Mr. E. M. Mansfield, of Lexington, and J. L. Walker, of Columbia, were calling on our tobacco growers one day last week, in the interest of pooling their tobacco. They met with great encouragements. Our farmers are taking a sensible view of the matter.

Messrs. Dudley Bros., our efficient mill men, informed your reporter a few days ago, that they had brought six thousand bushels of wheat at prices from one to one dollar and twenty-five cents per bu. This is quite a treat to our farmers to have a market for their wheat.

Mr. Cephas Keltner, of McGregor, Texas, came in one day last week and we were all glad to shake his hand once more in the flesh, and to hear from our dear one in the Lone Star State. Mr. Keltner reports all of the Kentucky people well and getting along well. He will remain several weeks in this part of the county, visiting his father and mother and other relatives and friends.

Mr. J. H. Rodgers and wife, of Mell, spent a few days with their relatives and friends here the first of the week.

L. B. Cain sold, Walker Bros., the first of the week 2 hogs for $45.00 and J. Patton, of Breeding, two for $55.00. Also brought from Shelby Tarter, 2 calves for $25.00, one calf from W. M. Wilmore for $12.50, one heifer from J. O. Parnell $45.00.

R. L. Caldwell, of Milltown community, was in our midst one day last week and while here sold Dudley Bros., four hundred bushel of wheat at $1.20 per bu. Mr. Caldwell informed us that he had just had his present crop of wheat threshed making 800 bushels. This is the largest crop that we have heard of any one farmer making in this part of the county.

We respectfully solicit your patronage. By patronizing us you are patronizing a home concern and without your help, we cannot hope to exist. Our gasoline has the punch you need for your car, with more mileage per gallon. Our lamp oil does not have the objectionable odor so often complained about in Kerosene. We have to burn oil ourselves for lights, consequently we have your interest right in our own home. We have high-grade gas-oil for fuel, oil engines and tractors. Road oil for your streets to keep the dust down this summer. Fuel oil for your steam boiler, that is cheaper to burn than wood. We would be pleased to quote you prices on any of the above products, and with our fair policy of satisfaction or your money back guarantee we are making friends rapidly. THE HOME CONCERN.

a New "USCO"—
Better, Heavier, Longer Wearing
30 x 3 1/2 — $10.90 No Tax added
on Sale Now

USCO set the high value mark for 30 x 3 1/2 tires when it originated the $10.90 price last Fall.

USCO today betters that mark with a new and greater USCO—an USCO improved in many important ways.

For instance, a thicker tread—with a surer hold on the road—thicker side walls, adding strength and life to the tire.

And the price is $10.90—with the tax absorbed by the manufacturer.

Men have always looked to USCO for the biggest tire money's worth on the market.

They always get a bigger tire money's worth than they expect.

BIG LAND SALE

D. W. TOMES'

Splendid 515--Acre Green River Bottom Farm
(Subdivided)

All Live Stock, Farming Implements, Etc.,

Wednesday, August 2nd.

At 10:00 a. m.

LOCATION: This fine Green River Bottom Farm is located three miles from Liberty, the county seat of Casey county. Both the Liberty and Hustonville and Liberty and Middleburg turnpikes run through this farm making it an ideal subdivision proposition. Each tract with good pike frontage. Of this 515 acres there are 265 in rich Green river bottom, as fine as mortal man ever cast his eyes over. 100 acres upland and in grass and cultivation. The balance is in good timber, estimated at 150,000 feet saw timber, about 15,000 ties, etc. Rich coves. 10 acres in tobacco, 100 acres in corn, fine meadows of timothy and clover, oats, grazing land etc. Splendid water, fine well, a number of everlasting springs, Green River, etc. Two good orchards. This farm is a "PEACH." A Money Maker and a Dividend Producer. IMPROVEMENTS: Elegant two story residence of eight rooms, veranda and back porch, good stock barn, double cribs on Hustonville and Liberty turnpike. Nice residence of six rooms, porches, tobacco, barn 40x100, tenant house of five rooms, good stock barn 40x100. Old mill with its picturesque surroundings on Liberty and Middleburg turnpike and a world of other outbuildings on the farm.

The personality consists of a lot of horses, mules, cows, calves, hogs, all farming implements, mowers, riding plows, rakes, two horse wagons, buggies, about 250 barrels of corn, 100,000 pounds of hay, tobacco and other things too numerous to mention. This is one of the very best farms in Casey county and ideally located. All interested parties have agreed that it shall SELL for the HIGH DOLLAR without RESERVE, BY-BID OR LIMIT. Our contract has but one price and that is the HIGH DOLLAR BID at the AUCTION SALE. It will be as ABSOLUTE as any Master Commissioners Sale ever held in Kentucky. It is left absolutely with YOU to say what these valuable holdings are worth and the last bid on sale day is going to get a deed let the result be as it may. OPPORTUNITY is knocking at your door—ACT. This will be one of the biggest sales ever pulled off in Casey county. Join the crowd and attend for they will be there from miles around. We invite the closest inspection and meet us there on sale day—WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, at 10:00 A. M., and pound your bids at her.

Dinner on the ground. Easy terms. Possession January 1st, 1923.

Our Cane Valley correspondent tells of the burning of Whitney & Farris mill. We understand that the owners had four thousand dollars insurance on the machinery.

As satisfactory reports of the pooling of tobacco come in from all over the State, the interest continues to grow in Adair county. At this time it looks like all the growers in this immediate section will sign their crops.

Mrs. Valmont Cheatham, near town was badly shocked by lightning Sunday afternoon. She is not yet able to sit up.

Corn in Adair county looks better than ever before known at this time of the season. It has a dark rich color and is growing rapidly. You can now pull corn, for table use, from fields.

Attention is called to the land sale published elsewhere in this paper. It is a desirable Casey county farm, in a fine neighborhood. The sale is put on by Hughes & McCarty, Stanford, Ky.

Jo, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Attis McFarland, Jamestown, was bitten by a dog a few days ago, the dog's teeth penetrating his side. The canine was not mad, and the boy recovered in a short time.

The Columbia Outlaws were defeated at Burkesville last Wednesday, the game closing 7 to 3 in favor of Burkesville. The Outlaws only got one hit off Anderson, the Burkesville pitcher.

Sheriff Coffey and one of his deputies found some tubs which had been used at a distillery, on Jack Sullivan's farm, near Keil's Shop, one day last week. They were brought to Columbia.

Moonshining in Adair county will soon be an occupation of the past. But little said about illicit making and selling at this time.

For Fair Catalogues, see John B. Coffey, Secretary.

The common school of Adair county started most auspiciously. A number report a full attendance.

MAN ASKS AND GOD ANSWERS QUESTIONS ON THE RESURRECTION

The Laymen's Home Missionary Movement, 1327 Snyder Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

What are the two special resurrections?

(1) The heavenly, or spiritual, resurrection, Rev. 20: 6: Blessed and holy are they that have part in the first resurrection. They shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

2 Cor. 5: 41-44, 49, 52, 53: It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power; it is sown in a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. And as we have borne the image of the earthy (one, Adam), we shall also bear the image of the heavenly (One, Jesus). The dead shall be raised incorruptible; for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

(2) The earthly, or human, resurrection, Ezek. 37: 1-14, 19, 21-23: When I shall bring again the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them. When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. Then . . . thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters. Is. 25: 6, 8: In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things. . . . He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of His people shall be taken away from off all the earth. Is. 65: 17, 19, 21-23: For behold I create . . . a new earth. And I will joy in My People. They shall build houses and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat. . . . Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for vanity.

What are some Scriptures bearing on both resurrections?

John 5: 28, 29 Rev. Ver.: All that are in the tombs shall hear His voice and shall come forth—they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment. Acts 24: 15: There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

1 Cor. 15: 45-48, 54-57: The first man is [was] of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is [was] the earthy (one, Adam), such are [shall] they also [be] that are earthy; and as is the heavenly (One, Jesus), such are [shall] they [be] that are heavenly.

Why should we expect a resurrection—a perfecting—of the obedient of the world as well as of the church?

(1) God's Oath-bound Covenant to bless all nations through Abraham's seed, Jesus and His followers, Gen. 22: 18: In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. Gal. 3: 14, 29: He saith . . . To thy seed, which is Christ. If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

(2) The Ransom-Sacrifice of Christ for all, 1 Tim. 2: 5, 6: The Man Christ Jesus, . . . gave Himself a ransom for all. John 12: 32, 33: And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me. This He said, signifying what death He should die. John. 15: 18, 19: (Am. Rev. Ver.): Through the righteousness of one the free gift came [shall come] unto all men to justification of life; for . . . through the obedience of the one shall many be made righteous.

1 Cor. 15: 21, 22: By man came also the resurrection from the dead. For all in Christ shall be made alive.

(3) The sacrificial sufferings of Jesus' followers for the dead. 1 Cor. 15: 29-32: Else what shall they do which are baptized [with sacrificial sufferings, Mark 10: 35-40] for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they, then, baptized [with sacrificial sufferings] for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not?

Where will these two resurrected classes spend eternity?

(1) The faithful followers of Christ, John 14: 3: I will come again, and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also. 2 Cor. 5: 1: We have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Pet. 3: 13: We . . . look for new heavens, . . . where . . . dwelleth righteousness.

(2) The obedient of the world, Prov. 2: 21: For the upright shall dwell in it. Is. 60: 21: Thy people shall be all righteous; and they shall inherit the land forever. 2 Pet. 3: 13: We, according to His promise, look for . . . a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

GETS RECIPES OF CANNIBALS

English Woman Novelist Learns Ways of New Guinea Epicures During Long Sojourn.

THEIR MANNERS ARE PRAISED

Says Hypnotism Prevails Among Natives to an Extent Appearing Incredible—Position of Women Is Deplorable.

London.—Miss Beatrice Grimshaw, the well known novelist, who has been 15 years in the South Sea Islands, has returned from New Guinea. As an indication of the wilderness and the unknown character of the vast tracts of territory comprising that country she mentioned that quite recently the missionaries, with the aid of airplanes, had discovered a valley containing 10,000 people whose existence had not even been suspected. They were found to be living at an altitude where it was imagined that human life could not endure. She had a wonderful story to tell of her experiences. To a representative of the Evening Standard she said:

"New Guinea is one of the most noteworthy countries in the world, and a great deal of it has never been explored by white people. Within a certain distance the government has done a great deal, but there are stretches in which cannibal tribes live to themselves. Many, however, are induced to work on the plantations, and the cannibals are certainly the finest native workers, because of their physical development and their demeanor. But cannibalism flourishes, and the people who practice it do not regard it as wrong. In the interior cannibals live to themselves, and it is only when they come under British jurisdiction that their cannibalistic tendencies are checked. One gets so accustomed to this question of cannibalism that it is accepted almost as a matter of course. I know the cookery recipes now as to the best methods of preparing human food.

Huge Stove Oven Used.
"In one part of the country there is a stone oven six feet long dug into a side of a hill for the purpose of dealing with the victims. The inhabitants of one village may attack another. The prisoners are tortured terribly, and then eaten. One method is to take out their eyes and then roast the body alive in the traditional three-legged caldron. The cannibals break the bones and legs of their victims beforehand sometimes, and then let the body lie in a running stream, which method, they believe, makes the meat more tender. The odd feature of it all is that the most determined cannibals are extremely well-mannered, and in all other respects are the best workers you can find. As to whether cannibalism springs from the love of human flesh or is merely a ritual one cannot say. I think the cannibals really like the human flesh. But you can not get them to talk about it.

"Sorcery has a remarkable hold on the people in this country, and the occult powers that are displayed can only be regarded by white people as amusing. The natives even have a sorcerers' university where natives are taught for a period of two years. Sorcerers can carry poisonous and dangerous snakes in their hair, and can train them to bite people, leaving them loose in a house, and it is even possible, it is said, to make a snake bite a particular person. Equally extraordinary are the powers possessed by conjurers.

Saturated in Hypnotism.
"I believe these natives understand hypnotism from end to end. They do table-turning with a sort of alligator-shaped image. They ask questions of spirits, and see blue lights. This happens in the Gulf country. The power of hypnotism is used to an extent that seems barely credible, but there is no doubt, to my mind, that certain natives are believed to hypnotize whole audiences, and they do it in one instance by means of a dance of the most peculiar character. I have seen this dance, and the extraordinary effect of it. The performer apparently dominates the whole of the room by his actions. The effect of the dancing is that hypnosis on a massed scale like this can be induced in the wildest possible way.

"Several people have tried to investigate the meaning of the mind, but they have not succeeded. It is quite obvious that the natives are saturated in hypnotism as a result of the practice of many centuries, which enables them to do all sorts of things that to us are always inexplicable. I do not admire spiritualism or hypnotism, and I am rather glad to find that it has its roots among savages.

"The position of women is deplorable. They are in effect slaves. Marriage is by purchase, and it is usually dependent on the number of pigs that can be offered by the bridegroom to the bride's parents. The pig, in fact, is thought to be of very much more value than the wife."

Husbands Can't Have Allimony.
Seattle.—A husband has no legal right to allimony, according to the Washington State Supreme court. The decision was made in setting aside the ruling in the case of Mrs. Agnes Jacobson, who had been made liable for temporary suit money, temporary attorney's fees, and temporary maintenance for her husband, John.

WOMEN LEAD RIOTERS

Martial Law in Vera Cruz After Fight With Reds.

Rioters Insult Soldiers and Try to Incite Reds to Storm Jail to Free Leader.

Vera Cruz, July 8.—Martial law has been declared here after renewal of the clashes between the police, soldiers and members of the Red Union of revolutionary tenants.

Heron Proal, founder and director of the syndicate, is confined in the military prison, having been arrested on charges of homicide and sedition. The charges grew out of the killing of several soldiers and policemen who intervened in a dispute between rival factions in the union, one party accusing Proal of misappropriating the organization's funds.

The rioters were led by women radicals, who are said to have insulted the soldier guards and attempted to incite the syndicalists to storm the prison and free Proal. The newspapers are demanding that the authorities take drastic steps to prevent further bloodshed.

The revolt of the garrison of the Copacabana fortress, which was finally put down by the government forces, was to have been part of a general uprising in which all the forts would join. Capt. Euclides da Fonseca, leader of the rebels, is quoted by the newspaper A Noticia as declaring after his arrest.

Capt. da Fonseca absolved from blame his father, Marshal Hermes de Fonseca, declaring he was ignorant of the rebels' plans, which were concocted with the assistance of certain politicians. At the last moment, the captain said, he advised his father to retire with his family from the city, which he warned him would shortly be swept by gunfire.

The Journal do Commercio, semi-official newspaper, describing the taking of Copacabana, states that at two o'clock Thursday afternoon the forces occupying the fortress tired of waiting for the return of Capt. da Fonseca, who at that time was treating with the government for their surrender, and decided to attack the government forces in the vicinity.

Advancing down the Avenida Atlantica, which is the residential drive-way along the seacoast, they met a force of loyal troops who at first believed the rebels were on their way to surrender. A volley from the latter, however, showed their intentions, and a battle followed which lasted for more than an hour, when most of the rebel leaders had been killed or wounded, and the remainder yielded.

Three battalions of infantry then occupied the fortress.

FIRE WIPES OUT HALF TOWN

Two Lives Lost and Fifty Families Made Homeless by Flames at Merville, B. C.

Vancouver, B. C., July 8.—Word reached here of the destruction by fire of half the little town of Merville, near Courtenay, with a loss of two lives. Fifty families made homeless by the flames barely escaped with their lives when the fire, driven by a high wind, swept down from adjoining forests. The town was founded on Vancouver Island in 1919 by World war veterans, who formulated their plans on returning from France.

HARDING TALKS TO STUDENTS

Says It Is America's Duty to Help World Get on Feet, in Accepting College Degree.

New Concord, O., July 8.—"It is America's duty to help the world get on its feet," President Harding declared here, in accepting at Muskingum college the degree of doctor of laws. The President's address to the small student body of his old college extolled the principle of service. "College students of today," the President said, "can have no higher ideal than that of service to mankind."

Built to Withstand Wind and Water

A ship must be built to endure constant exposure to wind and water; so must a roof. And in roofing, as in a ship, the needed strength is supplied by the stout inner framework.

The framework of Flex-a-Tile Roofing is long-fibre Richardson felt, made by men who have devoted a lifetime to its production. Since 1868, the Richardson Mills have been widely known for the quality of their roofing felt.

This rugged basic material, saturated and coated on both top and bottom with scientifically prepared natural asphalt, gives Flex-a-Tile Rubbertex Roofing its exceptional endurance.

FLEX-A-TILE HOUSE TOPS

Rubbertex is the logical choice for a wide variety of roofs—for warehouses, barns, garages—wherever you want a high grade smooth-surfaced roofing with quality built right in.

In laying a roof of Flex-a-Tile Rubbertex, we recommend the use of Pyramid Kaps—an improved type of galvanized iron fastener that clamps the roofing to the sheathing with an even binding pressure along its entire length. Pyramid Kaps absolutely seal the laps, making them as solid as Rubbertex itself.

ALASKAN NATIVES MOURN KILBUCK

Gloom in the Far Northland Follows Death of Beloved Indian Missionary.

WILL NOT FORGET HIS WORK

From Kansas to Arctic John Henry Kilbuck Carried the Gospel, Saving Lives and Winning Love of Natives.

Juneau.—There is gloom among the natives in Alaska today.

From Point Barrow—the farthest north—to Metlakatla and Juneau in the south; from the headwaters of the Kuskokwim and Yukon down to the sea, is traveling forth the word that "Kilbuck is dead." Everywhere the news permeates, there follows sadness. Grown men and women among the Eskimos and Indians grieve like children. All because the "most loved man beyond 54-40" is no more.

For more than four decades John Henry Kilbuck, Muncie Indian of the old Delaware nation that roamed over Pennsylvania before the days of Washington and William Penn, had been intimately associated with the Klunkits and Takus of southeastern Alaska, or the Eskimos and breed tribes around Point Barrow. With his pale-face wife he was guardian, counselor, spiritual guide and friend.

Will Not Forget Him.

But the country which John Kilbuck played such an important part in developing will not forget him. The thousands of reindeer that roam the tundras under the watchful eye of their native shepherds, will forever remind the natives of him. It was Kilbuck who, at the request of the United States government, introduced reindeer propagation in Alaska, and by so doing he banished the specter of famine that periodically wiped out entire tribes when the hard times came and the winters closed in before they were prepared.

Akjak and Bethel, both founded by the Moravian missionary, some day may grow into flourishing cities when Alaska comes into its own. And they will cherish his memory.

Doings of missionaries, as a rule, make rather tame reading. But the activities of John Kilbuck and his wife were not confined to strictly spiritual things.

Four different times did the Kilbucks go "below" with the intention of spending their declining years in the States. And four times they went back. The call was irresistible.

The last time—it was to have been different. With all the best intentions, accentuated by memories of past failures to keep good resolutions—the pioneer torchbearers of civilization resolved to spend their declining years near the homes of their forefathers—on the Chippewa Indian reservation down in Kansas.

Deep down in their hearts, however, they had a "hunch" that the North would win. It always had.

So the North Won Again.

In their little white and green cottage, nestling in the Chippewa hills and overlooking the placid Marais des Cygnes river in eastern Kansas the Kilbucks were waiting. Waiting for word that the break-up in the Yukon and Kuskokwim was about to begin. They had reached their decision.

"They need us. The influenza has reached Alaska. If it gets into the interior before we do nobody knows what will happen. Thousands may perish. Their deer, now numbering thousands, will be cast adrift over the tundras—prey to wolves and wild dogs and equally unscrupulous 'breeds'."

With the first word of the thaw they took a steamer out of Seattle. They arrived none too soon. Influenza already was taking its toll. But they did get there in time to save hundreds.

The Kilbucks took up their work where they had left off upon their departure for the States. They were just whipping things into shape and getting comfortably settled for the last chapter of their life's book when pneumonia and typhoid, diseases from which they had saved thousands of Uncle Sam's little Indian wards, struck home. In three days Kilbuck was dead.

It was back in 1885 that John Kilbuck and his white wife arrived in Alaska. He had just graduated from the Moravian Missionary school at Nazareth, Pa., where he had been sent by a Christian worker among the Kansas Indians.

It took years to gain the confidence of the Alaska natives, but patience and kindness finally won and now no name is better known or more beloved among the Alaska Indians or Eskimos than Kilbuck.

LOSES HAIR IN BEAUTY SHOP

Woman's Tresses and Part of Scalp Are Torn Out by Curious Machine.

Marion, N. C.—Mrs. J. G. Beaman is in a critical condition at a local hospital as the result of injuries suffered in a beauty parlor, where she went to have her hair dressed. Goes Back to Prison Cell for Forgetting

New York.—For being forgetful, Alexander Werchinsky, a convict, has been returned to Sing Sing prison as a parole violator after five months' freedom, and will spend two and one-half years more in prison. He was originally sentenced to from two and a half to five years for alleged assault in Manhattan. After serving his minimum term he was paroled and released last December 12 with instructions to report regularly to his parole agent. He failed to report and vanished. When rearrested he said he is absent-minded and forgot to make the periodical report.

RULE WIFE CAN'T BE LIBELED

London Recorder Quashes Indictment Against Husband Because of Peculiar Precedent in Law.

London.—At the Central Criminal court before the recorder, William Anthony Barter, thirty-four, draughtsman, was indicted for publishing a defamatory libel concerning Elsie Alice Barter, his wife.

Mr. Frederick Levy, for the defendant, moved to quash the indictment. He quoted the decision in which it was held that a wife could not take proceedings against her husband for defamatory libel.

The recorder referred to a passage in the decision quoted in which it was stated that a libel might raise angry passions and a desire for revenge, and lead to breach of the peace. The learned judge thought, said the recorder, that that should be settled in the domestic forum.

Mr. Huntly Jenkins, for the prosecution, said he had intended to put the point before the recorder. There was no doubt that the defendant wrote a number of scurrilous postcards.

The recorder said: "If a man hits his wife she has a remedy, but if he inflicts the much more severe injury of writing libelous postcards she has no remedy."

Mr. Levy read a letter which the defendant had written to his wife expressing his sincere apologies for writing the postcards. He unreservedly withdrew all the statements and expressed regret for the annoyance which had been caused to her. He also spoke of the "most bitter remorse" which he felt. Mr. Levy added that the defendant desired him to emphasize the expressions of regret.

The recorder said it was admitted by the prosecution that the indictment would not lie. The law protected a wife from physical injuries which her husband inflicted on her, but apparently did not protect her from cowardly libels. He quashed the indictment, and the defendant was discharged.

"RADIO IN BURLESQUE"

Radio develops bugs and germs. Miss Margaret Morrison Smith, girl sculptress, brings into the world what she is wont to term, "radio in burlesque." Two plaster images of her modeling are the radio bug and the radio germ. The bug she informs is symbolic of modern America, alert, awed, baffled and shocked by the art described by ethereal personages as "radio infinity." The other is the basal impetus, the Conan Doyle occult picture of a radio germ.

BROADCASTING A GOOD WORD

Phrase Popularly Used in Radio Long in Use Among English Speaking People.

London.—A literary weekly says "broadcasting" is "a new word added to the language by wireless telephony." Such a periodical should rather have referred with pleasure to the fact that the good English verb "to broadcast" has found apt employment for many years.

There is a popular hymn which thousands of Lancashire people sing at Whitsuntide, whose first verse begins, "Sow in the morn thy seed," and ends with "Broadcast it o'er the land." Reference to the Thesaurus confirms the fact that "broadcast" was already in the language, and suggests that in its place we might easily have been afflicted with one of its synonyms. "Widespread" would have been as good.

WHO WANTS TO DO THIS?

Turning the corner of Broadway into Wall street, New York, recently the casual pedestrian noticed everyone hugging the walls. He thought of bombs until he looked up and saw Willie Smith painting the flag pole protruding from the nineteenth floor of the Bankers Trust building. Most of the gazers had figured out what awful splash Willie would make if he let go. But inasmuch as painting inaccessible places is Willie's job, there was no danger of his making the splash.

FIND YOUTH GOOD BANK RISK

Boy and Girl Borrowers in Washington Meet Obligations Promptly, Say Officials.

Wenatchee, Wash.—Boy and girl borrowers are said to be more prompt in meeting their obligations to banks than the general run of creditors, according to bankers who have been advancing money to further the interests of pig, garden and canning clubs in the northwest.

One bank in Pullman, which has been making these loans since 1937, states not one borrower has failed to pay his note.

The loans are made up to $50 to each creditor, with a first mortgage on the chattel with the cash and co-adult endorser.

One northwest bank reports having made loans this spring to seventy-three boys raising pigs. The total loans of $3,400 are secured by property worth ten times as much. Should the season's work prove successful to the boys.

OBJECT TO WOMEN IN DANCE

Girls Appear on Stage Against Age-Old Traditions of Japan and Cause Big Sensation.

Tokyo.—A sensation has been caused in "no" dance circles by the effort of women to be allowed to participate in this most exclusive and highest form of Japanese entertainment, the performers in which have heretofore been confined to men. Recently a number of women did appear on a "no" dance stage at Ura on Awaji island, the result being a protest meeting was held.

For seven centuries men have held this monopoly, the dance somewhat on the line of the Russian ballet, in that the dance is the performance of a play, being performed by them. In old days only the aristocracy was allowed to witness the dance.

Marries 62 Couples in 150 Minutes

New York.—Marrying 62 couples in 150 minutes, Deputy City Clerk James J. McCormick, set a new knot-tying record. He devoted on an average of less than two and one-half minutes to each couple. In this time he had them ushered into the chapel, married them, and sent them on their way.

Boy Turns Burglar to Pay Court Fine

Chester Shiley, eighteen years old, of Chicago, has confessed that he led a robbery in which two men were probably fatally shot in an attempt to get $100 to pay a fine of $100 levied in boys' court. The youth got a pistol, persuaded two friends to accompany him, and tried to hold up a grocery store. His two friends were shot by the grocer and Shiley captured. He said he couldn't get the money to pay his fine in any other way, so decided he would have to steal it.

Lexington, Ky., July 20.—Six West Virginia growers of Burley tobacco, from Hurricane, Milton and Winfield, who came here Tuesday night to learn the actual sentiment of Kentucky members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co operative Association toward their organization, will leave for their homes to-day thoroughly convinced that the co-operative system of handling burley tobacco has been a success, obtaining their information at first hand from growers they interviewed at home, in their fields or at a big public sale of lambs, which was held yesterday in Fayette county.

There were six in the delegation from West Virginia and they "paired off" to make their inquiries, C. S. Hollansworth, of Hurricane, and F. H. Moss, of Winfield, forming one party of investigation, J. M. Chaney and Joseph Jordan, of Hurricane, another, and G. C. Blackwood and J. L. Sturm, of Milton, the other. They made their inquiries independent of any members of the Burley Association, though an automobile was placed at their disposal by members of the Association.

Where does a man get the idea that "hard times" is the time for him to go to sleep? Where does he get the idea that it is the time for him to decrease his efforts? When you are driving and come to a hill do you take your foot off the accelerator, decrease your power and wait for the hill to be removed? Of course you don't. You double and triple your effort until you make the grade. Then where do we get the idea that when business strikes a bill we should decrease our efforts and lie low?

is no time to think of hail insurance. It is the time to find the extent of the damage and crop loss - and present claim if insured for indemnity. Hail insurance is as necessary to farmers as seed or fertilizer.

There is only one right way to buy Hail Insurance and that is persistently year after year as an investment.
